Explore the Magick to be Made in Your City!

“This approachable, informative handbook will appeal to readers interested in finding the magic of the metropolitan.”

- Publishers Weekly

ST. PAUL, MINN — Magick is everywhere and definitely in your city! Discover how to engage with the sentience within the urban landscape and harness its boundless possibilities. Urban Magick shows you how to connect with your city’s diverse ecosystem, from urban grid to architecture to human history, and channel the powerful energy running through it all. Through the practices in this book you may find treasures you never knew were there.

Diana Rajchel invites you on an in-depth exploration of what it means to engage with your city spirit and practice urban magick, providing a variety of spells for city life, techniques for working with spirits and elements, and exercises to boost your creativity and energy. You’ll also learn the purpose behind both ancient and modern cities, how architecture and population density affect your magick, and much more.
